

Forging Closer Ties:
Transatlantic Relations,
Climate Change and Energy

PhD Workshop
Berlin, November 28 - December 5, 2009

Environmental Policy Research Center
Freie Universität Berlin

In cooperation with:
Federal Foreign Office, Federal Environment Ministry
Embassy of Canada, Berlin
U.S. Embassy, Berlin

The PhD Workshop brings together PhD students and faculty from European and North American universities as part of the Transatlantic Climate Bridge initiative to examine developments in transatlantic climate and energy relations.

The Transatlantic Climate Bridge is an initiative launched by the German Foreign Office and the German Federal Ministry of the Environment, Nuclear Safety and Nature Conservation to foster transatlantic cooperation and partnerships between Germany, the US and Canada in the climate and energy arena- at the local, the state and the federal level.

The workshop is sponsored by the Center for International Cooperation at Freie Universität Berlin
