

Two-year research-based taught Master

Master of Arts

Sociology – European Societies

Research topics

Comparative studies of European societies Analysis of European integration Understanding Europe in a global context of globalization

Modules

European integration and the development of European societies since 1945 Sociological theories of social change and integration Methods of comparative research in social sciences Social structure and inequalities in European societies
Culture and values in European societies Globalization and regional development Research placement
Masters thesis

Target group

The program targets graduates of sociology and of other social studies.

Admission

A good first degree and good command of English are required for admission.

Application

Information on application and deadlines can be found at our website.

Contact

ma-sociology@fu-berlin.de www.fu-berlin.de/ma-sociology

www.fu-berlin.de/ma-sociology

Freie Universität  Berlin

In cooperation with:

 DIW BERLIN

 WZB

Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung
Social Science Research Center Berlin