Dear Frédéric Mion,

We are deeply saddened by the sudden death of Prof. Anne-Marie Le Gloannec. On behalf of Freie Universität, we would like to express our sincerest condolences to you and everyone at Sciences Po. Anne-Marie was a fantastic individual and great colleague who will be greatly missed by everyone who had the honor and pleasure of working with her, not only at Sciences Po, but in the different academic institutions, she was affiliated with. We are proud to say that this included the Freie Universität Berlin. For many years, Anne-Marie was a very important and highly respected partner for the Otto-Suhr-Institut. Her support for the double degree programs with Sciences Po for 35 years was invaluable. We particularly remember her dedication to and engagement in the joint seminars here in Berlin. Her expertise on foreign policy has inspired our students and greatly informed our research. She played a leading role in a H2020 project we submitted this February. We will greatly miss her.

Our thoughts are with you and your colleagues as you adjust to this great loss. Please extend our condolences to her daughter and to the rest of the family and let us know if there might be any way we can assist.

With best wishes,
