Summer School 2017:
Understanding Arab Media - More than Facebook and Al-Jazeera

This SummerSchool aims at deepening and spreading state-of-the-art knowledge about Arab Media. Invited are 28 participants from 10 Arab countries, including Algeria, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Oman, Palestine, Qatar, Tunisia and Yemen.
Together with students of the Freie Universität the participants will work in intercultural teams in order to create digital learning material about Arab Media. The short educational videos will be uploaded onto our learning platform "International Media Systems" (www.areacore.org/ims).
The SummerSchool is supported within the framework of the Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities' Transformation Working Group.
