

About Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence

The Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence “The EU and its Citizens” pools the expertise and academic activities of scholars working on European Integration at the Freie Universität Berlin. In doing so, it puts the relationship between the EU and its citizens center-stage addressing one of the major challenges of European integration.

Registration for the conference participation is required.

Please email to timme@zedat.fu-berlin.de, until October 6, 2010.

Thanks to the support of:

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

About FONDACA

FONDACA – Active Citizenship Foundation – is a Roman based European think tank engaged in citizenship related issues, through research, advanced training, cultural dialogue and advice programs.

Contact

home@fondaca.org
www.fondaca.org

About the Kolleg-Forscherguppe “The Transformative Power of Europe”

The Kolleg-Forscherguppe examines the role of the EU as promoter and recipient of ideas, analyzing the mechanisms and effects of internal and external diffusion processes in three research areas. The Kolleg-Forscherguppe seeks and encourages the academic exchange of representatives of various disciplines – nationally and internationally.

Contact

Freie Universität Berlin
Kolleg-Forscherguppe
transform-europe@fu-berlin.de
+49 (0)30 838 570 31
www.transformeurope.eu

WORKSHOP

The Other Side of the Coin: The Single Currency and European Citizenship

11 October, 2010

SEMINARIS CampusHotel Berlin
Science & Conference Center
Takustraße 39
14195 Berlin
U-station: Dahlem-Dorf

Freie Universität  Berlin

Program

9.00–10.45

INTRODUCTORY SESSION

Presentation of the Seminar

GIOVANNI MORO, President, FONDACA

Opening Remarks:

THOMAS RISSE, Otto-Suhr-Institute for Political Science, Freie Universität, Berlin
VIVIEN SCHMIDT, Centre for International Relations, Boston University

General Discussion

10.45–11.00

Coffee break

11.00–12.45

First Session:

EUROPEAN CITIZENSHIP IN THE EURO CRISIS

Speakers:

DANIELA PIANA, Bologna University:
“The Financial Crisis and the EuroZone. Challenging or Pulling European Puzzle Together Again?”

Discussants:

ANNA HECHINGER, Berlin Graduate School for Transnational Studies / Hertie School of Governance

ARNDT SORGE, Social Science Research Center, Berlin (WZB)

12.45–14.00

Lunch

14.00–15.45

Second session:

SINGLE CURRENCY, UNION CITIZENSHIP AND THE EU POLITICAL PROJECT

Speakers:

EVA HEIDBREder, Hertie School of Governance, Berlin: “The Absence of Euro from the Current Debate on EU Democracy”

Discussants:

TANJA A. BÖRZEL, Freie Universität, Berlin
DARIO CASTIGLIONE, University of Exeter

15.45–16.00

Coffee break

16.00–17.45

Third Session:

THE SINGLE CURRENCY AND THE EU CITIZENSHIP-BUILDING

Speakers:

CHRISTIAN CALLIESS, Freie Universität, Berlin: “European Values, European Currency and European Identity as a Basis for Union Citizenship?”
ARIANNA MONTANARI, Sapienza University, Rome: “European Identity, National Stereotypes and Currency Perception”

Discussants:

DANIEL BARBU, Bucharest University
MICHAEL ZURN, Social Science Research Centre, Berlin (WZB)
THIERRY VISSOL, European Commission expert

17.45

CLOSING REMARKS

18.00

End of the Workshop