

BERLIN ANTHROPOLOGY SEMINARS

bi-weekly on Wednesdays
from 4.15 - 5.45 pm

This seminar series constitutes a joint initiative by anthropologists from the Institute for Social and Cultural Anthropology at FU Berlin, ZMO, and Ethnologisches Museum. It intends to shape and cultivate an inclusive platform and open regular meeting point for exchange and discussion on current research by Berlin-based anthropologists.

May 8 Laibor Kalanga Moko (FU Berlin): The House of Iloikop: A Critical Maasai Perspective on the Humboldt Forum | L115

May 22 Heike Becker (Univ. of the Western Cape): Decolonising South African Anthropology | L115

June 5 Katharina Lange (Leibniz Zentrum Moderner Orient): Disordered Times. Cultivation, Violence and Care in Human-Plant-Relations (Afrin, Syria) | L115

June 19 Jonas Tinius (Humboldt Universität): Theatre and Theory: Anthropological Fieldwork and the Production of Artistic Knowledge | Hittorfstr. 18

July 3 Nasima Selim (Universität Bayreuth): A Sufi is Someone who Breathes Well! Breathing Well in Suffocating Times: Book launch „Breathing Hearts“ (Berghahn Books) and breathwork | L115

more information

