

Study - Trip to

Schaalsee Biosphere Reserve

10 July 2015

Agenda

07:30h	Departure from Berlin* to Zarrentin
10:00 - 10:45h	Presentation of the UNESCO Man and the Biosphere (MAB) program and Biosphere Reserve concept (Natasha Donevska) Presentation - How does the Schaalsee BR fulfil the MAB program requirements? (management structures, responsibilities, projects) (H. Schütze)
10:45 - 11:30h	Guide through an exhibition - 25 th Anniversary of the Schaalsee BR
11:30 - 13:30h	Visit to partner-stakeholders Arche-Hof Domäne Kneese where lunch will be offered.
13:30 - 14:30h	On the way back to Zarrentin break at the visitor tower at the Kneeser Niederung (view into an restoration project) and in Lassahn (view on the Schaalsee).
14:30 - 16:00h	Participatory process/experiences within the management process of the BR, presentation and discussion (H. Schütze, A. Middelschulte)
16:30h	Departure from Zarrentin to Berlin
19:00h	Arrival in Berlin

*The departure address in Berlin is:

Schloss Charlottenburg, Spandauer Damm 20-24

Short info about Arche-Hof Domäne Kneese, Lebenshilfewerk Hagenow gGmbH:

Rehabilitation of disabled people, Working and living on a farm;

Farm shop with organic products, organic farming, gardening and landscaping;

Breeding and preservation of endangered breeds of domestic animals (pigs) as part of the Arche-Program.