

Wandel des modernen Kapitalismus

Veranstaltungsreihe – Wintersemester 2009/2010
Ihnestraße 21, Hörsaal A
Mittwochs 16-18 Uhr

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 4. November 2009 | Prof. Richard Deeg, Temple University, Philadelphia, USA
Evolutionary Patterns of Capitalist Systems: Why 2008 is Much Ado About Nothing |
| 25. November 2009 | Prof. Bob Jessop, Lancaster University, UK
Variegated Capitalism in Economic Crisis |
| 9. Dezember 2009 | Prof. Philip G. Cerny, Rutgers University, Newark, USA
Saving Capitalism from the Capitalists? Problems of Financial Regulation After the Crash |
| 20. Januar 2010 | Prof. Tony Porter, McMaster University, Hamilton, Kanada
Global Governance and the Transformation of Capitalism After the Global Credit Crisis of 2008 |
| 3. Februar 2010 | Prof. Vivien A. Schmidt, Boston University, USA
The Fall, Rise, Fall, and Rise of the State in Modern Capitalism, and How to Explain it |
| 10. Februar 2010 | Prof. Richard Higgott, University of Warwick, UK
Protectionism as a Challenge for Modern Capitalism: a “Systemic”, Not a “Second Order” Problem |

Kontakt: Prof. Dr. Susanne Lütz, Arbeitsstelle Internationale Politische Ökonomie, Otto-Suhr-Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Ihnestr. 22, 14195 Berlin
Tel.: (030) 838-56444/-56470, Email: luetz@zedat.fu-berlin.de