The three research placements will be presented at a joint session on Monday, 14. Oct 2013, 2-4 p.m., in room 22/G, at Ihnestr. 22. (The time was wrongly advertised for a different time at some places)

Additional Course:

Research Colloquium

30223

Christian von Scheve

Tuesday, 16:00 – 18:00

JK 33/121, Habelschwerdter Allee 45

Held in English or German, depending on candidates' preferences

This is a combined research colloquium and thesis course. We discuss current research projects, ongoing dissertations, and MA theses. In particular for the latter, the course provides peer and faculty-led guidance in the development of thesis research projects, with emphasis on theory and empirical design. Class meetings are held in English and German, depending on candidates' preferences.
